

Three Shores CISMA

“Cooperatively managing invasive species throughout Chippewa, Luce, and Mackinac Counties”

THREE SHORES
CISMA

EUP Japanese Knotweed Public Workshop

02/12/2019 5:30 PM

Bayliss Public Library
541 Library Drive
Sault Ste. Marie, MI 49783

Japanese Knotweed, aka “Michigan Bamboo”, is top priority invasive species commonly found throughout the Eastern Upper Peninsula. Learn how you can identify, prevent, and combat it’s spread! Also learn how to identify and control other priority invasive species that maybe growing in YOUR backyard!

For more information on invasive species, contact Three Shores CISMA:

Phone: 906-632-9611 x 121

E-mail: threeshorescisma@gmail.com

This project is funded by the Michigan Invasive Species Grant Program www.michigan.gov/invasives